The New York Herath was founded by James Gordon Bennett in 1835. It remained the sole property of its founder until his death, in 1872, when his son, also James Gordon Bennett, succeeded to the ownership of the paper, which remained in his hands until his death, in 1918. The filesand became the property of Frank A. Munsey, its present owner, in 1920.

Judge Landis's Wage Cuts.

The wage cuts by Judge Landis, as arbitrator in the Chicago building trades dispute, are not themselves of so much importance as the priniples he followed in readjusting the cales. His decision, for one examle, that ablebodied, competent work ers who insist on restricting their output below their easy capacity to produce more must expect to have their daily pay correspondingly restricted is as admirable in morals as it is sound in economics.

Again, the organized workers who will not permit ordinary labor to perform the simplest and crudest work on jobs that "belong to them," but compel the employer to pay them the wages of highly skilled workers for moving rubbish or carrying dead weight, must, by Judge Landis's opinion, expect to be treated more as common labor than as skilled labor. Since they degrade themselves from the higher to the lower function of pay must be similarly degraded.

calamity which befell this country York. Do it next Tuesday. after the war than the fact that the exorbitant labor costs, which locked the industrial wheels and threw millions of wage earners out of employment, were due not merely to high wage scales but to the low productivity of workers getting their inflated wages. There were millions of men in this country who were not so well for $5 and $6 a day as they had done it before for $2 and $3 a day. There were thousands of men portance warrants. in the skilled classifications who were taking $8, $9 and $10 a day but not actually earning, by the measuring stick of quantity and quality of output, as much as the $3 man had German Minister of Reconstruction called upon if the Government ever American business.

No other man in this country ever did labor unionism so much harm as SAM GOMPERS and his associates have done it in the last year by re- not obtain modification of the reparasisting the restoration of labor's economic efficiency and blatting all over pay, so she is taking the other way the land that union members' wages must not be reduced whether they earn them or do not earn them.

The American people are going to get back to original principles in the matter of a fair day's work for a fair day's pay which gave this country the economic supremacy of the world. They are going to get back to it if they have to steam roller every Sam Gompers in the United States as flat as a pancake. Judge LANDIS, whose interest in American labor, whatever his shortcomings, is genuine and deep seated, knows this. So when he enforces, among those for whom he has arbitrated the disputed points, the very fundamental which is under every wage, every cost and every price he is moving, in fact, to save organized labor itself from the rocks upon which its own wreckers have been madly driving it.
